

HOW DO VOCAL CORDS WORK?

Vocal cords are two membranous pieces of tissue found near the larynx in the throat. When we talk, these two cords vibrate and come together, allowing us to have a voice. We can make different sounds and speak at different pitches by altering how tense the cords are.

Disney
BE HEALTHY
BE ACTIVE