

THE IMPORTANCE OF CELLS

Red blood cells carry oxygen to all the cells in your body.

Brain cells are special cells that you use to think, feel, and send signals to the rest of your body.

Bone cells are hard and stiff, which gives your body structure.

Muscle cells make movement possible.

White blood cells attack the germs that make you sick.

Disney
BE HEALTHY
BE ACTIVE